Charged With Keeping a Disorderly

John O'Connor of Highland Avenue was arrested by Officers Foster and Mahoney last Sunday charged by John and Henry Van der Schans with keeping a disorderly house. O'Connor was brought before Justice Post, who admitted him to ball in the sum of $500 to appear before the Grand Jury. Shortly afterwards the complainants appeared before the Justice again and asked leave to withdraw the complaint, as O'Connor, they said, had removed the bar and fixtures from his place and had gone out of business. The Justice said he would hold his decision in abeyance until he could consult the citizens in the neigh-
